

Course Proposal Checklist

The Course Proposal Checklist form lists each course in the current curriculum for a given department. The list is used to ensure that no proposals are misplaced during process.

Place a checkmark on the appropriate line for each course that is proposed to be changed or dropped.

Attach a list of all NEW courses being proposed in your curriculum or program at the end of the Course Proposal Checklist.

This form is included in the Curriculum Proposal Package.