Michigan Technological University Youth Programs 2010

Film & Video Production

July 4 - July 10, 2010
For students who have completed grades 9-11
20 Seats available - Apply Soon!

Program Information
Michigan Tech’s Film and Video Production program is a week-long exploration for students interested in expert visual design. Participants will be given the tools needed to develop and learn graphic design skills. During the week you’ll...

- Direct your own short-film project
- Learn to use iMovie and iDV
- Learn about college life and extracurricular activities
- Enjoy other enhancement and recreational activities in the spectacular setting of Michigan’s Upper Peninsula

Upon request arrangements can be made for you to talk to faculty from disciplines or areas in which you have special interests, as well as admissions and financial aid staff.

How to Apply
Enrollment is first-come, first-served. In order to be considered for a scholarship (see below), students must complete and submit this scholarship application as well as a Youth Programs application. You can apply online, or download additional copies of this application at www.youthprograms.mtu.edu.

Cost
Students living on campus during the program will have an all-inclusive cost of $750 that covers all tuition, classroom supplies, field trips, and room and board. Commuting students will be charged $450, which covers tuition, classroom supplies, field trips, and lunch every day. Please read below for scholarship opportunities.

Scholarships
Partial scholarships are available for up to $375. Students must complete the scholarship application (provided on the back of this handout) which includes a teacher recommendation, school transcript, and essay. Students must have a minimum of a 3.0 GPA to receive this scholarship.
